

CODE OF CONDUCT AND ETHICAL VALUES

“Freedom of Associating Labor Unions policy”

Jordan Chalk Manufacturing Company allows employees to form or join associations or labor organizations, both local and international.

The company also smoothes the way for employees to express their opinions and discuss them through labor committees, with the objective of improving their living and working conditions and their personal interests, or to amend and improve laws governing labor relations.